

Honorable James L. Robart

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

CHRISTOPHER SCOTT CRAWFORD,

Defendant.

NO. CR22-87 JLR

PROTECTIVE ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on the Stipulated Motion for Protective Order regarding discovery materials, as permitted by Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(d). Having considered the record and files herein, the Court finds there is good cause to grant the stipulated motion, and hence:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the discovery materials discussed in the Motion for the Protective Order and referred to therein as "Protected Material," marked specially as "Subject to Protective Order," may be produced to counsel for the defendant in this case.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that possession of Protected Material is limited to the attorney of record in this case and the attorney's staff, and to any investigators, expert witnesses, and other agents the attorney of record retains in connection with this case,

1 collectively referred to as “the defense team.” The attorneys of record, and their
2 investigators, expert witnesses, and other agents may review Protected Material with the 3 defendant. The defendant may inspect and review Protected Material, but shall not be
4 allowed to possess, photograph, or record Protected Material or otherwise retain Protected
5 Material or copies thereof.

6 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defense counsel shall not provide Protected
7 Material, or copies thereof, to any other person who is not a member of the defense team,
8 including the defendant. Defense counsel may send electronic copies of Protected Material to 9 the Federal Detention Center (FDC) for defendant’s review. Any Protected Material sent to 10 the FDC must be sent with the designation as Protected so that the FDC may maintain all 11 copies for the defendant’s review in the Education Law Library.

12 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant, defense counsel, and others to whom 13 disclosure of the content of the Protected Material may be necessary to assist with the 14 preparation of the defense, shall not disclose the Protected Material or its contents, other than 15 as necessary for the preparation of defenses at trial and in subsequent appellate proceedings,
16 if necessary.

17 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if defense counsel finds it necessary to file any 18 documents marked as Protected Material, the material shall be filed under seal with the 19 Court.

20 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, notwithstanding the above, any nude or intimate 21 images of the alleged victim in this case shall not be produced by the government but shall 22 be retained in the government’s custody and control. Members of the defense team, not 23 including the defendant, may review these materials at a mutually agreeable time at the 24 government’s offices, in the presence of government counsel or agents of the government.
25 No copies of such images shall be disseminated outside of the government’s control. Nothing
26 in the paragraph prohibits the use of such images as exhibits at any trial in this matter,
27 subject to further direction and orders by the Court as to the manner of their use.

1 Except as noted above with respect to nude/intimate images of the alleged victim,
2 nothing in this Protective Order prohibits defense counsel from showing the Protected
3 Material, or reviewing its contents, with the defendant or with others to whom disclosure
4 may be necessary to assist with the preparation of the defense at trial and in subsequent 5 appellate proceedings, if necessary.

6 Nothing in this Protective Order prohibits defense counsel from disputing the 7 designation of material as Protected Material and, if agreement cannot be reached between 8 the parties, to seeking a determination by this Court.

9 Nothing in this Protective Order prohibits defense counsel from moving to modify the 10 Protective Order in the event the defendant's ability to review discovery becomes unduly 11 restricted, including, but not limited to, by having insufficient time to review discovery in the 12 FDC law library.

13 At the conclusion of the case, the Protected Material shall be returned to the United 14 States, or destroyed, or otherwise stored in a manner to ensure that it is not subsequently 15 duplicated or disseminated in violation of this Protective Order.

16 DATED this 27th day of June, 2023.
